THREE SPRINGS RESIDENTIAL ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I
NAME, LOCATION, AND OBJECT

The name of the corporation is Three Springs Residential Association (the "Association"). The principal office of the Association shall initially be located in the County of La Plata, Colorado. Meetings of Members and Directors may be held at such places within the State of Colorado as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The purpose for which the Association is formed is to govern the properties situated in the County of La Plata, Colorado, described in the Residential Declaration for Three Springs ("Declaration") and all amendments and supplements thereto. All terms defined in said Declaration or in the Association's Articles of Incorporation ("Articles") shall have the same meaning herein unless otherwise defined. The Association shall be a "not for profit" corporation.

ARTICLE II
MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section 1 — Annual Meetings. The first annual meeting of the Members shall be held within one year from the date of incorporation of the Association, and each subsequent regular annual meeting of the Members shall be held within thirty (30) days of such date in each year thereafter, and at such date, time, and place as may be determined by the Board of Directors. If the day for the annual meeting of the Members is a legal holiday, the meeting will be held at the same hour on the first day following which is not a legal holiday.

Section 2 — Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Members or any class of Members may be called at any time by the President, by a majority of the Board of Directors, or upon written request of Members holding at least thirty percent (30%) of the votes entitled to be cast on the matters to be considered at the special meeting.

Section 3 — Notice of Meetings. Written notice of each meeting of the Members shall be given by, or at the direction of, the Secretary or person authorized to call the meeting by mailing a copy of such notice, postage prepaid, at least ten (10) days and no more than fifty (50) days before such meeting to each Member entitled to vote thereat, addressed to the Member's Unit or other mailing address designated in writing by such Member to the Association. Such notice shall specify the place, day, and hour of the meeting and the items on the agenda, including the general nature of any proposed amendments to the Declaration, Articles, or these By-Laws, any budget changes, and any proposal to remove an officer or director. The Association also may provide notices in electronic form, by posting on a website or otherwise. Such electronic postings shall be sent to Members' electronic mail address for all Members who notify the Association of such electronic mail address. Electronic notice of meetings shall be given as soon as possible but in any event at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting. Such Notice also shall be physically posted in a conspicuous place to the extent feasible and practicable and may be posted to Members electronically.

Section 4 — Quorum. The presence at the meeting of the Members entitled to cast, or of proxies entitled to cast, twenty-five percent (25%) of the votes of all Members shall constitute a quorum for any action except as otherwise provided in the Articles, the Declaration, or these By-Laws. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting, the Members entitled to vote thereat shall have the power to adjourn the meeting to a date not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) days in the future. A quorum shall be deemed present throughout the meeting if a quorum is present at the beginning of such meeting. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting, the Members entitled to vote thereat shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum as aforesaid shall be present or be represented.

Section 5 — Voting Rights. Every Owner (including the Declarant) of a Lot or Unit, which is Assessable Property shall be a Member of the Association. Each such Owner shall have the following number of Memberships: (a) One Membership for each Lot or Unit (excluding Rental Apartments) owned by the Member; (b) One Membership for each completed Rental Apartments owned by a Member; and (c) In the case of the Owner of a Lot or Unit restricted to Apartment Development use, but as to which construction has not been completed, one Membership for each Rental Apartments permitted under the Master Development Plan, the number of such Dwelling Units to be determined on the assumption that the number of Dwelling Units within a density classification on the Master Development Plan will be spread evenly over all land within the density classification. If a final plan for a Lot or Unit is subsequently approved by the Design Review Committee and the City for a number of Dwelling Units or Rental Apartments different from the number of Dwelling Units or Rental Apartments permitted under the Master Development Plan, the number of Memberships shall be adjusted, as to the portion of the Lot or Unit covered by the final plan and effective as of the date of adjustment, to reflect the actual number of Dwelling Units or Rental Apartments authorized by the final plan.

When more than one person holds an interest in the same Assessable Property, all such Owners shall be Members and the vote for such Assessable Property shall be cast as the Owners thereof agree, but in no event shall more than one vote be cast for each such Assessable Property. If the Owners of the Assessable Property do not agree as to the manner in which their votes should be cast when called upon to vote, then they shall be treated as having abstained.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article, during the period of Declarant's control as described in the Declaration, the Declarant has the right to appoint and remove all members of the Board of Directors and all officers of the Association, with such right phasing out as to some directors prior to such termination as provided in the Declaration.

Votes for members of the Board of Directors shall be taken by secret ballot and, upon the request of one or more members, a vote on any other matter affecting the Association and the Property subject to the Declaration shall be by secret ballot. Ballots shall be counted by a neutral third party or by an Owner who is not a candidate, who attends a meeting at which the vote is to be taken, and who is selected at random from a pool of two or more such Owners. The results of a vote shall be reported without reference to names, addresses, or other identifying information.

Votes may be exercised on behalf of a Member pursuant to a proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and shall be filed with the Secretary of the Corporation either before or at the meeting. A proxy is void if it is not dated or purports to be revocable without notice. Any proxy shall expire eleven months after its date, unless revoked or terminated sooner by the Member who appointed the proxy. A proxy shall not be valid if obtained through fraud or misrepresentation. The Association is entitled to reject a vote, consent, written ballot, waiver, proxy appointment, or revocation of a proxy appointment if the Secretary or the officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has a reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it, or about the signatory's authority to sign for the Member.

Section 6 — Binding Nature of Vote. Except where otherwise provided in the Declaration, Articles or By-Laws, a simple majority vote of the Members of the Association attending an Association meeting (provided a quorum is deemed to be present as provided in Section 4 above) shall be sufficient to adopt decisions which are binding on all Members, subject to the limitations and requirements set forth in the Declaration.

Section 7 — Meeting Attendance and Participation. All annual and special meetings of the Members shall be open to attendance by all Members of the Association or a designated representative of a Member who is designated in writing to be the Member's designated representative. All Members and designated representatives shall be permitted to attend, listen, and speak at an appropriate time during the deliberations and proceedings of all meetings of the Members. The Board of Directors may place reasonable time restrictions on those persons speaking during a meeting, but shall permit a Member or a Member's designated representative to speak before the Board of Directors takes formal action on an item under discussion, in addition to any other opportunities to speak. The Board of Directors shall provide for a reasonable number of persons to speak on each side of an issue.

Section 8 — Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of Members may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the all of the Members of the Association.

Section 9 — Waiver of Notice. Attendance of a Member at a meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of such meeting, except when such attendance at the meeting is for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Any Member may waive notice of any annual or special meeting of Members by executing a written notice of waiver either before or after the time of the meeting.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS; SELECTION; TERM OF OFFICE

Section 1 — Initial Number and Qualification of Directors. The number of Directors shall be not less than one (1) person nor more than seven (7) members. Directors shall be Members except that, if a Unit is owned by an entity, a Director may be an officer, director, member, or manager of such entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, members of the Board of Directors and officers elected by the Declarant can be any person that the Declarant chooses.

Section 2 — Directors During and After Termination of Period of Declarant's Control. During the Declarant Control Period (as defined in the Declaration), the Declarant is entitled to appoint a majority of the members of the Board. The Declarant shall have the right to appoint and remove members of the Board until the first to occur of the following:

- A. Sixty (60) days after seventy-five percent (75%) of the Maximum Units have certificates of occupancy issued thereon and have been conveyed to Persons other than a declarant (as defined in the Act);
- B. Six (6) years after the last conveyance of a Lot or Parcel by Declarant in the ordinary course of business;
- C. Twenty (20) years after Recording of the Declaration; or
- D. When, in its discretion, Declarant so determines.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Declarant voluntarily relinquishes its right to appoint and remove officers and directors of the Association prior to the termination of the Declarant Control Period, Declarant reserves the right to approve or disapprove specified actions of the Association as provided in these Bylaws or as designated by Declarant in a Recorded instrument relinquishing Declarant's rights to appoint and remove officers and directors of the Association.

The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts as are not directed or required to be exercised or done by the Members by statute, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, the Declaration, the Colorado Common Interest Ownership Act codified by Colorado Revised Statutes ("C.R.S") Section 38-33.3-101, et seq., as amended (the "Act"), or the Colorado Non-Profit Corporation Act. The powers of the Board of Directors shall be limited to all of the rights and duties of the Corporation and the Board of Directors, as set forth elsewhere in these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration, the Act or the Colorado Non-Profit Corporation Act and shall include the power to promulgate such rules and regulations pertaining to such rights and duties as may be deemed proper and consistent with the foregoing. The Board of Directors may delegate such duties as appear in the best interest of the Corporation and to the extent permitted by these Bylaws.

Section 3 — Term of Office. After the first election of Board Members after termination of the Period of Declarant's Control, all Members of the Board of Directors shall serve for a term of two (2) year and until their successors have been elected and qualified.

Section 4 — Removal. Any Director may be removed from the Board, with or without cause, by a sixty-seven percent (67%) vote of all of the Members of the Association, at a meeting called for that purpose. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the termination of the Period of Declarant's Control, Declarant will have the sole right to remove Directors, with such right phasing out as to some Directors prior to such termination as provided in the Declaration. In the event of death, resignation, or removal of a Director, his successor shall be selected by the remaining Members of the Board and shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

Section 5 — Compensation. No Director shall receive compensation for any service he may render to the Association. However, any Director may be reimbursed for his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

ARTICLE IV

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 — Nomination. Nomination for election to a position on the Board of Directors may be made by any Member who has a right to vote for the position being nominated, no more than two (2) weeks prior to any meeting in which the position shall be elected. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting. There shall be at least as many nominations for election to each open position on the Board of Directors as shall be needed to fill the number of vacancies in the position that are to be filled. The provisions of this Article shall not apply to Directors appointed by Declarant during the Period of Declarant's Control as described in the Declaration.

Section 2 — Election. Election to the Board of Directors shall be by secret written ballot. At such elections, each Member having a right to vote for the position being filled or the Member's proxy may cast, with respect to such position, as many votes as such Member is entitled to exercise under the provisions of the Declaration. The persons receiving the largest number of votes for each position shall be elected. Cumulative voting is not permitted.

Section 3 — Vacancies. Vacancies and newly created Directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of Directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director, and the Directors so chosen shall hold office until the next annual election and until their successors are duly elected and qualified, unless sooner displaced. If there are no Directors in office, then an election of Directors may be held in the manner provided by statute.

ARTICLE V

MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

Section 1 — Annual Meetings. A meeting of each newly-elected Board of Directors may be held without notice in each year immediately following the annual meeting of Members.

Section 2 — Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at least quarterly without notice, at such place and hour as may be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board. Should said meeting fall upon a legal holiday, then that meeting shall be held on the next day that is not a legal holiday.

Section 3 — Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held when called by the President of the Association, by a majority of the Board, or by Members having twenty percent (20%) of the votes in the Association after not less than three (3) days' notice to each Director. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting.

Section 4 — Quorum. A majority of the total number of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as an act of the Board.

Section 5 — Action Taken Without a Meeting. The Directors and the members of any committee of the Board shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could take at a meeting by obtaining the written approval of all the Directors or committee members. Any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the Directors or of the committee.

Section 6 — Telephone Meetings. Members of the Board of Directors or any other committee designated by such Board may participate in a meeting of the Board or committee by means of conference telephone or other similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting. If notice of a Directors' meeting or committee meeting is given, such notice need not specify that one or more Directors or committee members may participate in such meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment.

Section 7 — Meeting Attendance and Participation. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either within or without the State of Colorado. All annual and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be open to attendance by all Members of the Association or a designated representative of a Member who is designated in writing to be the Member's designated representative. All Members and designated representatives shall be permitted to attend, listen, and speak at an appropriate time during the deliberations and proceedings of all meetings of the Members; provided, however, that for regular and special meetings of the Board, Members who are not members of the Board of Directors and their designated representatives may not participate in any deliberation or discussion unless expressly authorized to do so by a vote of a majority of the quorum of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may place reasonable time restrictions on those persons speaking during a meeting, but shall permit a Member or a Member's designated representative to speak before the Board of Directors takes formal action on an item under discussion, in addition to any other opportunities to speak. The Board of Directors shall provide for a reasonable number of persons to speak on each side of an issue. Regular or special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other.

Section 8 — Executive Sessions. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these By-Laws regarding attendance at meetings, the members of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may hold an executive or closed door session and may restrict attendance to members of the Board of Directors and such other persons requested by the Board of Directors during a regular or specially announced meeting or a part thereof. The matters to be discussed at such an executive session shall include only the matters described in Section 38-33.3-308(4) of the Common Interest Act. The Board shall comply with the provisions of said Section of the Common Interest Act in connection with the conduct of any closed door or executive session and reporting the results thereof.

Section 9 — Notice. Notice of any regular or special meeting of the Board shall be given at least three (3) days previously thereto either by written notice delivered personally or mailed to each Director at his business or residence address, or by telegram or telephone. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice is given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting.

Section 10 — Conflicts of Interest. If any contract, decision, or other action taken by or on behalf of the Board of Directors would financially benefit any member of the Board of Directors or any person who is a parent, grandparent, spouse, child, or sibling of a member of the Board of Directors or a parent or spouse of any of those persons, that member of the Board of Directors shall declare a conflict of interest for that issue. The member shall declare the conflict in an open meeting, prior to any discussion or action on that issue. After making such declaration, the member may participate in the discussion, but shall not vote on that issue
